

1. After Washington's troops had the Declaration read aloud, the crowd took down a statue of King George. The head was put on a pipe, what happened to the rest of the statue?

2. The Battle of Long Island August 27, 1776: Washington now faces the largest trained forces in the world, the British. Who coordinates the British attack? _____

3. William Howe is a superb General, he's an excellent _____. He understands how to maneuver armies and troops in the _____. He is superior to Washington in that respect. He and his brother Richard sympathize with the American _____. This is why Howe holds back and he decides not to _____ the American Army.
4. Howe decides not to annihilate the Army but simply _____ it. He thinks if he can simply apply a few simple _____ that the Americans will come to their senses and return to the _____.
5. What was the first major battle after the signing of the Declaration of Independence?
_____.
6. General Howe surrounded Washington's troop. Some of his men were slaughtered when they tried to escape through the _____.

7. The British gave Washington a serious defeat at the battle of Long Island. They were expecting the Americans to surrender. What did General Washington do? _____
_____ .

8. What happened that allowed Washington to evacuate all 9000 of his troops without loss of life?

9. The battle of Kip's Bay was dominated by the British's and their artillery. What did Washington's men do that was a major hummilation for the General? _____.
When Washington order them to stand and fight they _____ him.

10. Washington in such dispare the pulled the reigns of his horse toward the advancing British to _____ toward them. General Green said Washington requested death, he wanted to go down in battle and become a _____ .

11. One of his aide de camp does what? _____
_____ .

12. New York is lost so Washington ordered a _____ .

13. In late September Washington prepares for the final _____ of his troops from Harlem Heights in New York City.

14. The defeat at Long Island and Kip's Bay was a devastating blow to Washington, the _____ effected him deeply.

15. Not once does Washington doubt The Cause, however he does question whether he was the _____ for the job. The Cause meant freedom and _____ from England.

16. King George was so elated over the victory of New York he gave what honor to General William Howe? _____

17. The fall and winter of 1776 were _____ time for General Washington. By mid-November British General Howe sends _____ to prusue Washington accross New Jersey.

18. Washington's men start deserting with the troop numbers dwindling down to approximately _____ men.

19. Washington sees the _____ losing hope which is very frightening for him. He worried if they will be able to carry on the struggle.

20. Washington makes a final plea for his men to stay in the fight. How many men does he lose?

21. After a series of losses and retreats Washington is in danger of losing the war. What pass word did Washington use for a daring attack at the Battle of Trenton?

22. The plan Washington created what for what night? _____ .
They had to cross what? _____ .

23. The plan was to capture 800 men in the _____ Garrison. What came up the coast on that night they were about to launch their battle plan?

24. What does Washington order to be read through out the entire camp?
_____. What is the first sentence of this work by Thomas Paine? _____
_____ .

25. The other Generals did what? _____

26. Washington crosses early. The crossing took how many hours? _____ , but should have taken 2.

27. Why was it was easy to follow the American troops 8 mile trek to Trenton?

28. The Hessian commander thought no one would be that crazy to attack in the middle of the night, because the _____ was so bad.

29. The Hessian Colonel Johann Rahl was unprepared for the attack. It is reported Rahl spent Christmas playing cards. It is reported an aide handed Rahl a message warning of a surprise attack. What Rahl do with the note? _____

30. The Americans witnessed the execution of prisoners in Manhattan and Long Island. Within the American troops there were some of German decent. What did they do to the Hessians they captured? They said "Comrade, Comrade, lay down your arms we will take your _____"

31. In the Battle of Princeton Washington does what to fool the British?

32. Washington drives the British almost entirely out of _____ wiping out the gains they made in the previous autumn of 1776.

33. In less than 2 _____ Washington has completely changed the course of the war.

34. While in Morristown Washington discovers a strategy to survive. He maintains a constant _____ on the enemy.

35. Washington is defeated at what battle? _____. General Howe takes over the then American capital of _____.

36. Generals Gates, Lee and Conway had one thing in common. They all wanted Washington's _____

37. Washington and his troops arrive at _____ in the winter of 1777.

38. Washington's men suffered from hunger, _____, and exposure.

How many of them died from these things? _____

39. Approximately 20% died from disease. They didn't have adequate clothing to wear, many still had their summer _____.

40. There was no meat, all they had was a few barrels of _____. Their suffering was incredible.

41. Washington realized that the morale of his men is part of their preservation. He inspires his troops by appealing to their _____. He has Joseph Addison's play CATO read aloud to his men. Cato is about a selfish patriot who does what? _____

_____.

42. Washington would remind them that they are Republicans which means _____

43. In February of 1778 an unemployed Prussian Army Officer with a letter of introduction from _____ . His name was

_____ .

44. Baron Von Steuben offered his _____ skills to the Cause.

45. Von Steuben speaks little English. Translators had difficulty translating his _____

He trained Washington's men into a _____ army.

46. The British and American forces would merge at _____ .

47. Washington was not a good tactical General. He does learn the _____ lesson that the British have to win, all he had to do was not _____ .

48. This goes against every instinct in Washington's body because he is a _____

49. Who enters the war in 1778 on the side of the Americans? _____.

Benjamin Franklin convinced them to enter the war and the stunning victory at _____ was another factor that helped recruit the French.

50. What turned the tide toward an American victory at Yorktown in 1781?

51. Washington wanted to defeat the British in New York to avenge the brutal loss he suffered at the hands of the British in 1776. Marquis de Lafayette informs Washington that _____ _____ was building up a fortification in York Virginia.

52. Washington lets go of his pride, a decision that changes the outcome of the war. Washington tricks the British by making them think he was going to attack _____ , instead he surrounds Cornwallis and defeated him in the last battle of the war winning independence for America.

53. Washington's troops were stationed at _____ 1782-1783. They were without pay for _____ years. They did not know the battle of _____ was the end of the war.

54. The officers rebelled. During one of their meetings Washington made a surprise visit. He read his offices a paper. What did he do prior to reading this paper that brought many of his men to tears?

_____ . He said "I have grown _____ in the service of my country. Now I find I am going _____ . " STOPPED 1:06:25